The Gentleman

After class the scholar turns to something other than study. Now he becomes "a gentleman," interested in extra-curricular activities such as dances, clubs, forensics and music.

Student Council

The Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Pieranttini, is always very active. It has helped to arouse the students' school spirit, not only in football, but also in basketball and forensics.

This year the council has sponsored pep meetings for all of the football and basketball games, made signs for all of the games in order to arouse the students' interest, and bought new uniforms for the basketball team. Last fall, the council also handled the refreshment concession at the football stadium.

The second annual "Fun Night" was a council sponsored success. A polio drive and the "Teen-Queen Contest" were the latest council projects.

A picnic is always the last item on the year's agenda.

. . . They Lead the Way

The Journalism Club has 24 members who represent grades nine to twelve inclusive on the M. H. S. Commentator Staff. These students are responsible for the monthly publication of the school paper.

For the second successive year the M. H. S. Commentator was awarded third place in the division of senior high school mimeographed newspapers among schools with enrollments between 250 and 500 pupils.

The award was made by the Pennsylvania School Press Association at its 21st annual convention held in Altoona High School on November 7 and 8.

SENIOR CHORUS

The Senior Chorus of twenty-four girls is the backbone of the stairway carols, and Christmas and Easter assemblies. They also usually elect to sing at their Baccalaureate Services, although singing together for enjoyment is their reason for their existence.

Row 1, left to right: D. Packroni, A. Reary, M. Dertod, S. Gillis, E. Franks, B. Benford, D. Townsend, A. Rozzi, A. Rakas, R. Weimer. Row 2; S. Humphreys, B. Snyder, R. Benford, A. Franchi, J. JUNIOR CHORUS

The Junior Chorus of forty-five members meets every Wednesday during activity period. Perfection of three part arrangements for unchanged voices is what they strive for. Uncontested in the County Forensics, they competed in the district for the first time.

SOPHOMORE SEXTETTE

The Sophomore Sextette has been singing trios together since eighth grade. Besides numerous programs both inside and outside of school, they are the mainstay of the Christmas and Easter assemblies. A selected trio from this group will again compete in forensics this year. The remaining trio will join with the Intermediate group to form a forensics ensemble. Eager and willing to improve and develop, they lend their fullest cooperation to all the vocal efforts at Masontown.

INTERMEDIATE TRIOS

The three Intermediate Trios meet on club day. Their purpose is to ear train for a cappella work during the transition from Junior to Senior Choir. It is hoped they will graduate into better than average trios or a forensics ensemble.

BASKETBALL

The Gunners played only two exhibition games this season and lost both of them to the Jefferson "Rockets." M. H. S. competed in Section 11 along with the following teams: North Union, South Union, German, Georges, Redstone and Point Marion. Masontown was winless at the close of the '52-'53 season. The Gunners were handicapped again this year because of the lack of a gym. They held their practice sessions and played their home games in the gym at All Saints High School. Our varsity coach, in his second year here at M. H. S., was Blaine Gjurich. The J.V. coach was Bob Ambrose.

Thanks to the Student Council, the Gunners had nice new red and white uniforms along with white shoes this past season.
